

FILM COMMISSIONS/OFFICES

South Africa has two film commissions – the Gauteng Film Commission (GFC) situated in Johannesburg and the Cape Film Commission (CFC) situated in Cape Town.

There are also two film offices – the Durban Film Office (DFO) and the Zululand Film Office (ZFO) situated in Richards Bay. At the time of writing, the Mpumalanga Film Office in Mbombela (formerly called Nelspruit) was in the process of setting up.

All of these entities exist to promote and facilitate all filming activity in their respective regions.
